

Arosa is a picturesque Swiss mountain village and a treat for the eyes. This hidden gem has all you need for a fantastic ski holiday. The Arosa and Lenzerheide ski areas boast over 200km of pistes, with plenty on offer for everyone. The wide blue slopes are particularly suited to beginners and intermediates. Arosa is a great Swiss alpine experience for families. The resort only has a few après bars and restaurants, but that means the visitors tend to all come together for après ski. Arosa can be best described as small yet mighty.

Top Runs

- Prättschli Honigland is a free ski area perfect for children and beginners looking to get some practice. In fact, the Arosa ski region in general is well catered to beginners and intermediates.
- Weisshorn-Arosa is the longest run in the resort at 4.5km. This leads to the Obersee lake, a beautiful view surrounded by mountains.
- Black Diamond Slope is one of the most difficult runs in Arosa, the beautiful panoramic views are the reward for the challenge ahead. The slope becomes extremely steep, making it a natural stop for many thrill-seekers.

Best for Après Ski

- Crest'ota
On the Lenzerheide side of the slopes, this après ski bar is a great choice for some sunshine and a pint. With its position on the mountain, you can enjoy the last rays of sunshine at this bar.
- The Kuhbar
A fun lively bar where the DJ never disappoints. The food is fast and the service is friendly. The best part? Just ski back down the slope after you're done having fun.
- Halli Galli
This bar has the feel of an open party, and is a firm favourite. With good music and friendly staff, there's not much more you could ask for from your après ski.

Recommended Restaurants
