

Corvara is a fantastic resort based on the Sella Ronda circuit in Italy. A pleasant, lively village, it has a lovely traditional centre that is very family friendly. Its local slopes suit novices, but also provide a great base for adventurous experts and intermediates looking to explore the Sella Ronda. Part of the Alta Badia region, the skiing is fantastic and picturesque. The area as a whole is brilliant for all types of skier or snowboarder.

Top Runs

- For intermediates there's a vast network of slopes ideal for cruising and confidence-boosting. The red back to Corvara underneath the Boe cable car is excellent, it's usually uncrowded and retains good snow.
- The area around Corvara and Colfosco is excellent for novices, with great nursery slopes and lots of easy runs to progress to.
- For experts, the much longer wooded runs down to La Villa include a black run, which can be tricky when icy. Or you can whizz off towards Selva or Arabba on the Sella Ronda circuit.

Best for Après Ski

- L'Murin
A renovated old mill house opposite Hotel La Perla in Corvara with a wonderfully cosy, rustic setting.
- L'Got
This is a stylish cosy bar, which serves great cocktails and tasty bar snacks.
- Iceberg Lounge Bar
Located at the Hotel Col Alto, this is highly regarded as the best place to drink cocktails and enjoy the relaxing sunset in Corvara.

Recommended Restaurants

- La Stüa de Michil
A fantastic restaurant in Hotel La Perla with a Michelin star, serving up superb food in a warm atmosphere.
- La Fornella
Excellent pizza at great value. A highly recommended choice for families.
- Black Hill Pizzeria
This is a popular choice for some delicious, wood-fired pizza in Corvara.
- L'Ostí
This restaurant has taken traditional Italian dishes and given them a modern twist. It also has a fantastic wine list.