

Courmayeur is located in the Aosta Valley, Northern Italy, at the foot of Mont Blanc. This is an ideal place to spend the weekend. Mont Blanc is the highest mountain in Western Europe and has fabulous runs for all levels of skiers and boarders, although the fun terrain is best suited to intermediates. Courmayeur is a charming, car-free village that offers stunning views of the infamous Mont Blanc. With long runs between 1,700m – 2,250m, it is no surprise that many travel from far away to enjoy those fresh, sunny powder days.

Top Runs

- Plan Chécrouit is great for the morning sun. You can take the Youla cable car to the top of Courmayeur's pisted runs and then take a smaller cable car to Crest D'Arpe.
- For intermediates, there are a few long runs. There is a 700m vertical from Chécrouit to Zerotta, and a 1,400m vertical from Cresta Youla.
- For beginners, there are a few short blue runs and a free lift on a beginner slope at Plan Chécrouit. However, the best place to start is the top of Entreves, which is a beginner slope with a magic carpet.
- The considerable off-piste potential of the area is the main attraction. There are three outstanding areas – Dolonne, the Val Veny beneath Mont Blanc, and the village of La Balme.

Best for Après Ski

- Le Privé
This is a great place to start your night. It serves delicious tapas and cocktails. Definitely book in advance.
- Caffe Della Posta
Well-liked by tourists and locals, this is the perfect place to grab a drink and chat about your day.
- Bar Roma
Located at the foot of Mont Blanc, Bar Roma is a trendy place to have a night out. It contains large antique sofas and complimentary nibbles to accompany your drink.
- American Bar
Expect friendly service, a great atmosphere and good music. Their burgers are especially delicious.

Recommended Restaurants

- Aria
Indulge in an extensive wine list and an innovative menu consisting of delicious and modern Italian dishes.
- Cadran Solaire
One of the many hidden gems of Courmayeur. Very European atmosphere, excellent food accompanied with five-star service. Reasonable prices for food and wine.
- Christiania Courmayeur
Known for its famous pizzas. Great place to pop in for a quick break or, as it is located at Plan Chécrouit, to stop once ski school has finished for the day.
- Maison Vieille
Cosy alpine atmosphere with a spectacular view of Mont Blanc. The menu is filled with rustic Italian cuisine paired with an extensive wine list.
- Chiccio
The perfect spot for a leisurely lunch, this is a mountainside gem.