

Geilo is a peaceful ski resort with a charming town. Located between two beautiful National Parks, the views are incredible on and off the slopes. This Norwegian ski resort is ideal for families and mixed ability groups. There are 40km of pistes to enjoy, mainly suited to beginner and intermediate skiers, with a vast amount of gentle terrain. A brilliant place to enjoy an adventure in Norway.

Top Runs

- There is a fantastic beginner area in Slaatta. There's also a gentle blue run that goes down to Havsdalen.
- For intermediates, there's a great long red run called Geilo Loypa No. 26 that heads to the main Geiloheisen Express chairlift.
- One of the most difficult runs advanced skiers can challenge themselves on is Ola Loypa No. 23. A steep black that's just under 1km.
- There's also 220km of cross-country ski routes to explore if you want a change of scene. In the evening there are floodlit tracks to enjoy.
