

La Villa is part of the Alta Badia ski region and has a beautiful mountain backdrop of the iconic Italian Dolomites. There are 130km of pistes to explore and the ski resort is linked to the Sella Ronda circuit. There's a good mixture of slopes to enjoy that cater to all levels of skiers or snowboarders. It's the biggest ski resort in Alta Badia, with plenty of places to eat. The village has a relaxed atmosphere but, there are a few bars to enjoy a drink after a day on the slopes.

Top Runs

- There are two nursery slopes at the base of the ski area in La Villa. Perfect for beginners to access.
- There's a reasonably long, easy blue run into La Villa. It's number 26 on the piste map. This is a perfect slope to progress from the nursery slopes.
- The number 17 red run at the top of the Piz La Ila gondola is a long sweeping run back to La Villa. A fun one and a great alternative to the black Gran Risa.
- Advanced skiers can challenge themselves on the Gran Risa black run. This is where the men's Alpine Ski World Cup Giant Slalom is held.

Best for Après Ski

- Club Moritzino
This is the liveliest bar in the area. There's a resident DJ that starts their set in the early afternoon.
- Durni's Pub
A cosy pub with a pool table inside. There's outside seating that's great on a sunny day to admire the Dolomites.
- Glam's
A small wine bar and café with a relaxed atmosphere. They serve tasty bar snacks too. The bar also has a nice outdoor seating area.

Recommended Restaurants

- La Bercia
For delicious pizzas and traditional Ladin cuisine, La Bercia is a great choice. The 'Wintergarten' is a conservatory that shows off the beautiful mountain views.
- Gourmet La Gana
Located in the Hotel Cristallo, this restaurant has a fantastic fine-dining experience. Enjoy locally-sourced wine.
- Ristorante Pizzeria L'Fana
Another great spot for tasty pizza. There are also traditional dishes from the Trentino-Alto Adige region.
- Le Ciano
A restaurant, steakhouse and pizzeria in one! Whether you dine as a family, a couple, or as a group; there is something to suit everyone.
