

Obertauern is a popular ski destination in the Austrian Alps. Its high altitude pistes, Alpine charm and marvellous mountain range attracts ski enthusiasts from all over the world. This resort boasts more than 100km of snow-sure slopes, offering varied and extensive skiing for all abilities. There are multiple ski schools, hotels close to the slopes and challenging terrain for advanced skiers. Obertauern also has an impressive après ski scene, with a mile of bustling bars and mountain-side restaurants across the base of its slopes.

Top Runs

- For experts, there are several high-elevation black runs such as Schaidberg or Gamsleiten. Experienced skiers can also enjoy marvellous off-piste explorations, best experienced with a guide.
- Obertauern has some fabulous intermediate-level runs such as Edelweissbahn and Hundskogel, perfect for cruising and taking in the beautiful Austrian mountainscape.
- Nursery slopes are dotted around the resort for beginners, with many blue slopes available to build confidence on a longer piste.

Best for Après Ski

- Lürzer Alm
A renowned après ski bar in the centre of Obertauern, offering everything from a relaxed drink and an à la carte dinner, to parties lasting until the early hours.
- Edelweissalm
This social hotspot sits in the centre of Obertauern. In the day, the atmosphere is relaxed and transforms into a thriving party scene by night.
- Gruber Stadl
One of the largest après ski bars in Obertauern, offering guests a happy hour, live bands and varied events throughout the season. The perfect location to enjoy Obertauern's nightlife.

Recommended Restaurants

- Alte Alm
This rustic restaurant serves regional specialties from its very own farm shop, the Tauern Genussladen. All dishes are homemade and of the highest quality.
- Freiwild
Inspired by Tavern culture, Freiwild brings old recipes to life using local ingredients. This cosy restaurant is also known for its delicious homemade pastries.
- Herzenslust
This cosy and romantic restaurant serves everything from local dishes to international cuisine. This is the perfect spot for relaxing, with an open wood fire and beautiful Alpine interior.