

St. Moritz ski resort is a truly magical destination, with a fantastic position in Switzerland's Engadine Valley. The location boasts magnificent views of the region, which is separated into three villages, Dorf, Lake St. Moritz and St. Moritz Bad. All three villages have direct lifts to the core skiing area, Corviglia, at 2,486m. St. Moritz not only has stunning scenery, but excellent skiing, with a total ski area of 325km. Be spoilt by the dazzling lakes, charming forests, and beautiful resort centre.

Top Runs

- Beginners have a dedicated area to progress in Corviglia. There are plenty of blue runs here to progress turns.
- From Corviglia take the gondola up to Piz Nair for remarkable views of the surrounding region. Then take the challenging 16 red slope and traverse across the mountain.
- Take the Signal chairlift from St. Moritz Bad to test your slalom skills on the women's World Cup Downhill slope.
- From St. Moritz Dorf, take the funicular up the mountain and from Corviglia, take the black slope to Chantarella for challenging tree-lined slope.

Best for Après Ski

- Sternbar Marguns
Located at 2,728 metres, Sternbar Marguns is an outdoor bar with a great atmosphere and the ultimate spot on a sunny day.
- Hossa Bar
Sit back and relax on the large sun terrace with a beer. The bar gets particularly lively on Friday for the 'snow night'.
- King's Social Club
For a sophisticated evening, head to King's Social Club. Famed as the oldest nightclub in Switzerland, it is a fantastic night out. Let the highly skilled barmen prepare eclectic craft cocktails or select one of the many excellent wines on offer.

Recommended Restaurants

- Trutz
A superb mountain restaurant overlooking the Upper Engadine lake landscape. It is directly next to the Suvretta lift station and accessible on foot. A great choice for a delicious home-cooked meal.
- Talvo by Dalsass
Experience culinary excellence from a long-time dedicated Michelin-starred chef. Be seated inside a delightful Engadine farmhouse dating from 1658.
- Kuhstall
For a cosy and homely meal, visit Kuhstall, on the valley run to Sils. The restaurant is in a transformed cowshed, serving warming traditional dishes.
