

Zell am See has a unique location being on the shore of Lake Zeller See. The scenery is stunning and the skiing is equally fantastic. This Austrian ski resort has something for everyone with diverse slopes, choices of restaurants and bars, plus plenty of accommodation. In Zell am See itself, there are 138km of pistes to enjoy, which can be expanded to 408km with a Ski Alpin card. The card allows access to the Skicircus Saalbach Hinterglemm Leogang Fieberbrunn, Zell am See and Kaprun.

Top Runs

- There are beginner areas at the Schüttdorf and Schmittental. Perfect for learning to ski or snowboard.
- For a great, long cruisy blue head up the Areitbahn. It's a great way to progress from the beginner's area.
- The long red run heading down from the ZellamseeXpress is a great open, fast run. You can easily clock up ski miles here.
- On the Kitzsteinhorn Glacier, there's a challenge for advanced skiers to ski the Black Mamba. It's one of the steepest slopes in the area.
